

Chicago Transit

'Chicago Transit' is the first band in the world to do a full tribute to the band 'Chicago'. Now, with over twenty-five years running, the band's five singers (four of which are lead vocalists), three-piece horn section and two keyboardists give the band the range to cover all the Chicago material from the early horn-dominant songs like "Make Me Smile", "25 or 6 to 4" and "Saturday in the Park" to the later, softer, keyboard-oriented ballads like "If You Leave Me Now" and "Hard to Say I'm Sorry".

'Chicago Transit', based in Hamilton, Ontario, Canada has performed hundreds of shows over the years at Festivals, Theatres, Casinos and various other venues from as far east as the Gatineau Hills in Quebec to the USA Midwest – including Chicago, Illinois, itself. And they remain today as the longest running 'Chicago' tribute band in the world – even getting an impromptu 'seal of approval' from the band 'Chicago', themselves. If you love 'Chicago', you'll love 'Chicago Transit'.
